Double Disc Court:

Joe Seebeck reports on DDC Tour 1 held on 24th February:

The start of the DDC season was looking to be a shaky one with the weather on Saturday taking a turn for the worse, but by 2pm on Sunday the weather had turned fine and the people had turned up. A small hiccup for the day was the defending champions of "E-UNIT" pulling out at the last minute. So we had a chance for a wide open even. With “McFlannigans”, “Poo Poo’s Revenge”, “Rocky 7” and “The Goon Squad”, it was looking to be a great tournament.

After some upsets and some early settling a clear order was established and a predictable final emerged in the form of the newly formed “The Goon Squad” (with half of the defending championship team “E-UNIT”) vs the ever sexy “McFlannigans”, this year still in the tight white shorts and 80’s tennis player hair, but with a totally new set of moustaches.

The final see sawed but McFlannigans managed to win the final 3 sets to 1. This victory puts them at the top of the tour ranking and makes for a very exciting tour in the months to come.

Timing: Second round, Sunday 16th March
